TUESDAY, AUGUST 11

3:00—on Check in if arriving today. See <http://www.grandover.com/#local-info> for details on planning a day out.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 12

10 a.m.	NC Egg Association Board of Director's Meeting
Noon	Lunch—Omelets with Howard Helmer (Guinness Book of Records™ holder: World's Fastest Omelet Maker) Join us for an "egg"cellent lunch of omelets made by the one and only Howard Helmer. Mr. Helmer's record is 427 omelets in 30 minutes. For 40 years he's been working for the American Egg Board, traveling across the country (and the world) showing people how to make omelets and other egg dishes.
1:30-4:30 p.m. (Break at 2:45)	Industry Workshops With Vision There is Hope- Saving our industries from a "Hollywood educated" voting society (1:30) SPEAKER: Bruce Vincent, 3rd Gen. Logger, Libby Montana This logger learned the hard way that 'fighting change' gets you nowhere – & 'leading change' moves mountains. There is a thin line between environmental sensitivity and environmental insanity - and in rural America, we are crossing that line. Labor Issue Dilemmas &amp; Ideas (3:00) SPEAKER: Fito Agraz, Ogletree &amp; Deakins, Raleigh, N.C. Labor issues are a growing topic. This seminar includes a legal team and representatives of our own industries discussing E-verify and the new Department of Labor regulations. Do You Know Who You Are Hiring? (3:30) SPEAKER: Terry Pollard, Big Dutchman Interviewing techniques and spotting those who may have ulterior motives for working on your farm. USDA &amp; New Administration's Priorities (4:00) SPEAKER: Howard Magwire, VP Government Relations, United Egg Producers What will affect our industries? The new administration in Washington is also bringing its own challenges. We will look at new concerns regarding USDA and their priorities. There will be a discussion on their visions and how they are expected to affect our industries over the next several years.
5—11 p.m.	Hospitality Suite (Suite 1131)
6:30 p.m.	Networking Dinner

THURSDAY, AUGUST 13

9 a.m.	Golf Tournament Check-in and Driving Range practice at Grandover Resort Format: Shotgun Start; two-person modified super ball. Awards ceremony immediately following the tournament! # About the Grandover Resort

Grandover Resort

A Grand, Old World European Setting

The public areas of the Grandover depict a grand, European style castle. The elegant lobby evokes an old world feel, with a contrasting floor pattern of Italian travertine, Tasmanian gold limestone and black granite, combined with large columns of Spanish marble. Chandeliers, lamp posts and gilded ironwork further enhance the décor.

Guest Rooms & Packages

Elegantly appointed guest rooms and suites offer breathtaking views of our world-class golfways. All guest rooms begin with a marble entry foyer, marble bathroom, custom tapestry designed exclusively for Grandover and a warm and eclectic blend of custom furnishings and upholstery.

Amenities include:

- 42" flat screen TV
- Bath robes
- Writing desk
- Iron and ironing board
- Two dual-line telephones with voice mail
- Refrigerator and wet bar
- Coffee maker
- Electronic door locks
- High-speed internet access
- Hairdryer
- Jacuzzi bathtubs
- Complimentary newspapers
- Data jack for broadband internet access on-demand
- Wireless internet

Grandover Golf

36 holes of world-class golf are right outside

Designed by David Graham and Gary Panks, world-renowned golf architects, our courses are built amidst our 1,500 acres of oaks, pine and dogwood-covered hills, providing a blaze of color and assuring golfers that they are indeed in the Carolinas. Share stunning panoramas with the deer and fox in the golfer's paradise, rated 4 stars by Golf Digest.

Dining & Entertainment

Enjoy morning coffee, pre-dinner aperitifs, seafood and more at the Grandover's various bars and cafes: Lobby Bar, Café Espresso, Raw Bar, Colony Bar, and Di Valletta.

The Spa at Grandover

A special retreat for the mind, body and soul

Enjoy a luxurious Grandover experience at a reasonable price. Have a spa service, play racquetball, work out in our fitness room, browse the spa boutique, or let your worries drift away as you relax in the hot tub, sauna, or steam room. Your purchase of any spa service includes the use of a spa robe, sandals and unlimited use of our indoor/outdoor pool, hot tub, sauna, steam room, and fitness room. We offer several types of massage, facials and body treatments, manicures, pedicures and more for singles and couples. Enjoy a full day at the spa for as little as $165.

Golf Shop

Open from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. in the summer; reach them at 336-323-3838.
