For Immediate Release
North Carolina Poultry Federation

Contact: Valerie Sherman, vsherman@ncpoultry.org
Date: April 5, 2019

NCPF holds 1st Quarter Board Meeting

Raleigh, NC – The North Carolina Poultry Federation (NCPF) held their 1st Quarter Board of Directors meeting on March 12, 2019 at the North Carolina State University Club in Raleigh, North Carolina lead by President Charles Rigdon of Case Farm. In addition to the quarterly business meeting, the NCPF was honored to have representatives from NC State University Veterinary School, NC State Prestage Poultry Science Department, NC Department of Agriculture & Consumer Services and the NC Egg Association in attendance. The NCPF is grateful to their close proximity to these organizations as well as their reciprocal relationships to ensure we stay abreast of all issues concerning the poultry industry.
(Pictured Left to Right) Dr. Mike Martin, NCDA&CS; Dr. Rocio Crespo, NCSU Veterinary School; Dr. Patricia Curtis, NCSU Prestage Poultry Science; and Dr. Mahmoud Sharara, NCSU Prestage Poultry Science.
Since 1968 the North Carolina Poultry Federation has been the voice of the state’s poultry industry. Serving producers and processors of chicken, turkey, and egg products, the Federation provides a united industry voice to government, media, and the general public. Our mission: To create a favorable climate for business success for everyone involved in North Carolina’s poultry industry.